

La vida Literaria

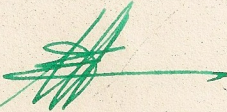

México, D. F., a 20 de Febrero de 1975.

We are sending herewith a volume of " THE LITERARY LIFE ", magazine which includes all the outstanding facts of our national and latin american literature. The complete collection of the former two years' publications, will cost $50.00 US and it includes also all 1975 which has just began, and the one we will send as soon as all the edition of 1975 has been completed, therefore, you will be lucky enough as to receive the complete 3 years' collection, at the same price mentioned herein, nevertheless we can only actually deliver the two former years' collections.

Due to the fact that our Management will change by ~~February~~ February 1976, we may not assure that our publication will continue functioning, consequently we are not in a position as to extend our proposition to a further term.

As it is known, the North American spirit is interested in any type of artistic or cultural demonstration, we dare to rely on the fact that our sales proposition will be considered, yet we only count with 150 collections at the moment, which we naturally expect will increase its value as time goes on.

We hope, if you are interested in acquiring our collection, you will let us know, so we may proceed to remit it and wait to receive your payment back, yet we are completely confident on the reliability of your Institution.
